Before you get started with our service, it is very important that you understand your account's billing process. To open your account return a signed copy of your agreement to accounting@adninternettelepphone.com. All small business services are set up on an automatic payment schedule. You will receive an invoice the 1st business day of each month via email. When signing up for service you will be asked to fill out a credit card authorization form. Auto debit payments using a credit card on file automatically keeps your account paid in full and will be charged to your account on the 10th of each month. We accept VISA, Mastercard, and American Express Cards.

The 1st month will be a prorated statement: new accounts will have their service plan price prorated on their 1st statement. This prorated value depends on the calendar day of the month your service was active.

BILLING PERIOD: Included service plan minutes are effective the 1st day of each calendar month, ending the last day of that month. Billing Statements are emailed on the 1st of every month. If your email address changes please be sure to notify us of this change.

TAXES: Telecom taxes are added to your statement on the last day of each calendar month. Taxes include applicable federal, state and municipal taxes.

Customer acknowledges that the success of its engagement with ADN depends on Customer's timely and effective satisfaction of its responsibilities under the Agreement, as well as timely responses from Customer to requests for information, decisions, testing, and approvals. Should Customer's delay in any of its responsibilities hinder ADN's performance, then ADN has the right to alter the timeline and bill Customer for services that would have been rendered during the original agreed timeline or bill client for unrealized hours associated with Customer's delays.

5. Term. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of sixty (60) months from the date of execution. The Agreement may be terminated upon written notice at any time by either party. In the event that ADN terminates this Agreement for convenience, ADN shall refund Customer the prepaid fees for services not performed.
